

UNITED STATES RALLY CHAMPIONSHIP ANNOUNCES THE 2TH ANNUAL IDAHO RALLY

Author: USRC Media

For Immediate Release - Mountain Home, Idaho March 9, 2008

Round 3 of the United States Rally Championship. The organizing team of the 2nd annual Idaho Rally is gearing up for this two-day stage rally in the mountains of the Boise National Forrest. The area has a storied history in mining, ranching and more recently, tourism, and the Idaho Rally shares in this history. Competitors will race through the historic mining town of Rocky Bar, slide through hairpins and transfer along beautiful canyons and the Boise River.

The event is scheduled for July 11-12th and will feature 110 stage miles of dirt roads. Many activities are based in Mountain Home, Idaho. The car parade through town and the park expose are opportunities for the public to meet and mingle with the drivers. Three spectator friendly stages have been set up to fulfill the rally enthusiast's needs. Jens Schkade, Event Chairman, has laid out the stages to be challenging for the competitor while fun for spectators to view.

Sponsors for this mainstay northwestern event include Larry Miller Subaru of Boise, Rallydrift, Inc., Cactus Bar of Boise and the Subaru North West Region. Timing and Scoring will be provided by the California Rally Series.

Additional event information is available at www.idahorally.com

Note to editors:

- Information on the Championship is available at www.usrallychampionship.com.
- Information on NASA is available at www.nasarallysport.com
- Information on the FIA is available at www.fia.com.

Contact: Donna Hocker
Series Administrator
United States Rally Championship
Office 760-446-4002
donnahocker@verizon.net